CITY COUNCIL CONSIDERATION ITEM
CITY OF FAIR OAKS RANCH, TEXAS
June 5, 2018

AGENDA TOPIC: Police Department Strategic Objectives
START/END DATE: June 5, 2018
DEPARTMENT: Police
PRESENTED BY: Chief Rubin

INTRODUCTION/BACKGROUND:

During the current budget process, it was determined that the Police Department needed input from City Council to establish acceptable strategic objectives to assist in decision making within the areas of current and future staffing levels, response times and all associated resources based on Council's desired officer availability. Additionally, the Police Department will provide overviews of current availability, services provided, and resources to include materials, staffing and recruiting initiatives. Ultimately, the Police Department would like feedback from Council on the current and future police services provided by the Department to include but not limited to Law Enforcement and Community Outreach Programs.

POLICY ANALYSIS/BENEFIT(S) TO CITIZENS:

By receiving guidance from City Council, it will better enable the Police Department to establish short and long-term objectives and the necessary strategic planning associated with meeting the desired outcomes determined by the City Council to provide the services expected of the Police Department.

LONGTERM FINANCIAL & BUDGETARY IMPACT:

Financial and budgetary impact will be determined based upon the established goals and objectives.
